Celebration

You are cordially invited to
The Junior Center of Art and Science
55th Birthday Celebration!

Saturday, October 17, 2009
4:00-7:00 p.m.

558 Bellevue Avenue, Oakland, California

Join us in celebrating the Junior Center's 55th Birthday and the 20th Anniversary of Tammara Katsikas, Executive Director

The event will include:

- inter-active demonstrations and performances by local artists and scientists
- appetizing food and beverages from local restaurants and bakeries
- exhibits and activity stations for children and the young at heart

Mission

Dedicated to all the children of the East Bay, The Junior Center of Art and Science encourages children's active wonder and creative responses through artistic and scientific exploration of their natural urban environment. The Junior Center's classes, workshops, exhibits and events integrate art and science to promote children's fresh, hands-on and personalized interaction with their natural world. The Junior Center contributes to the development of citizens who value nature and appreciate the importance of art and science in our community.

Over the last 55 years Junior Center programs have served over 550,000 Oakland/East Bay children at the Junior Center and in thousands of classrooms throughout the East Bay.
